26 July 2007

Dear Secretary General,

I have pleasure in confirming that the Association of Secretaries General will meet at Geneva in Switzerland from 8 - 10 October 2007, in the Centre International de Conférences, in parallel with the 117th session of the Inter-Parliamentary Union.

Please find attached the draft Agenda for the meeting, which was agreed at the last session in Nusa Dua. Please note that the business of the plenary will cover four days, involving a day devoted to Communication and Parliament scheduled for Monday 8 October 2007 and a seminar to be held jointly by the Global centre for ICT in Parliaments in cooperation with IPU and ASGP which is scheduled for Thursday 11 October 2007 on The Future of E-Parliaments. This will be in a similar format to the seminar last year on broadcasting in Parliament.

The final Agenda will be decided in the course of the first plenary meeting, which will take place on Monday 8 October at 10.00 a.m. Members of the Executive Committee will meet on the Sunday before at 3.00 p.m.

I hope that you will be able to prepare an intervention for the debates set out on the Orders of the Day.

We also hope that many members will attend to present communications on subjects relating to parliamentary law or recent developments in their Assemblies. Please contact the two joint secretaries if you wish to make such a communication.

We look forward to seeing you in Geneva.

Yours sincerely,

Anders Forsberg
President
